Paper and Rag Drive on North Torrance Slate

A meeting of the North Torrance Elementary PTA board was held on Wednesday, Feb. 7, at the school. Mrs. Jules Ross was elected recording secretary to replace Mrs. Sam Harris who, because of going to work, resigned.

Miss Olive Marshall's second grade room and Mrs. Lavinia McKelvy's fifth and sixth grade rooms won the treat in the recent paper drive, which netted $100 for the budget. Mrs. Wm. Sale, ways and means chairman, announced a new paper and rag drive to be held soon. The rag drive is set for Feb. 28. More information about this will be announced at the regular association meeting.

Mrs. Aron Weibe, student welfare chairman, gave a report on the dental program, which is being discussed by many Torrance organizations.

There have been two class discussions on first aid. If you are interested come and attend and the two classes missed can be made up. The course is an 18-week course and meets on Thursday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Three Women of Moose Win Prize on Video Show

Thirty-five members of the Women of the Moose attended a television show in Hollywood, Wednesday, February 7th. The three taking part and winning prizes were: Mesdames Sophia Duncan, Ila Mae Ambach, and Annabel Holland.

The dance given Friday evening, February 9th at the Moose Hall and sponsored jointly by the Loyol Order of the Moose and the Women of the Moose was very well attended and a gala time was enjoyed by all attending.

Another Friendship Dance will be held in March.

Mrs. Lucille Meyers was hostess to a luncheon for the Hospital Committee at her home. Valentine favors were made to be presented to the Ward adopted by the Women of Moose at the Harbor General Hospital.

Ritual Chairman, Marie Bankston extends thanks to all who helped to make the monthly card party a success.

The Women of the Moose are happy to report that nine of their members are now enrolled in Civilian Defense programs. More will be enrolled later.

The beautiful hand-crocheted table cloth to be awarded at the card party on March 7th is now finished and may be seen at the home of Mrs. Elsie Smith. Tickets are now on sale from any co-worker or the chairman Mrs. Elsie Smith.

A large attendance was out to the last meeting. More members are urged to come out to the business meetings as there is much business that needs immediate attention.

Mrs. R. A. Owens Surprised With Stork Shower

Surprised with a stork shower. Sunday morning in the form of a brunch at the home of Mrs. Howard Percy, 1653 Greenwood ave. was Mrs. R. A. Owens, editor of the Press. Hostesses were Mrs. W. R. Zappas and Mrs. Percy.

With the table gaily decorated by a white paper stork and flowers, the brunch consisted of fresh orange slices, sausages, scrambled eggs, coffee cake and coffee. Mrs. Owens was the recipient of a play pen, given to her by all present.

Those attending the shower were Mrs. Zappas and Mrs. Percy, hostesses; Mrs. J. L. Alvis and Mrs. A. L. Owens, the future grandmothers; Mesdames R. A. Owens, Larry Bennie, F. S. Selover, Charles Schultz, John Phillips, Lynn Hale, Belva S. Brase, Ewan R. Anderson, Walter West and Miss Edith L. Pavin.
